Specific Accomplishments as Chair

- Quality Online Learning Initiative: Led a faculty initiative to assure quality standards in online teaching modalities.
- Marketing Grants: Awarded to both Marketing ($5,000) and Hospitality ($5,000) online degree completion programs. We are in the process of developing flyers and videos to market both programs. In fall 2017, we will be implementing the following for both programs: Social media campaign, Google Pay-Per-Click (PPC) online advertising, and mobile banner advertisements.

- Online Course Development Grants: Course development/enhancement grants awarded for ALL undergraduate MKTG courses not funded in the past 18 months.
- Departmental Scholarship: Created a scholarship funded by our department that awards one Marketing or Hospitality student per year.
- Departmental Newsletter: “The Scoop: Only for Marketing Majors and Minors.” Enhanced communications by creating a newsletter which is sent to newly admitted freshman students and news/updates to our current marketing majors/minors.
- Social Media: Created the following social media to enhance communications between students, faculty, staff, alumni, and the community: Instagram, Twitter, LinkedIn Group, and Facebook.
- Experiential Learning Funds: Secured $2,000 for Experiential Learning in Principles of Marketing, 2017-2018.

Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) Coordinator for the Wall College of Business Sept. 2015 – Oct. 2016

- Promoted involvement in EL projects, courses, and other opportunities for both faculty and students.
- Reviewed extant EL-designated courses to ensure that resources are supporting EL sanctioned student activities.
- Determined courses that should be designated as Q courses.
- Assisted faculty in preparing written proposals for QEP funds.
- Allocated an annual budget of over $25,000 for experiential learning activities to faculty with significant proposals. Coordinate the development of the college’s funded EL projects and courses, including general oversight of the funding application processes and the college budget of over $25,000.
- Implemented strategies to help faculty identify curricular opportunities that can be enhanced with QEP resources or courses that may qualify for Q/Q* designations.
- Advised faculty in the writing of effective applications for designating courses as Q or Q*.
- Identified faculty development needs related to experiential learning.
- Prepared a comprehensive year-end report assessing the college’s overall QEP involvement and impact.
